The gift of learning

SINGAPORE - The Indian Business-leaders' Roundtable (IBR) on March 22 presented the Singapore Indian Development Association (SINDA) with $307,000 to assist in SINDA's e-learning initiatives. This amount was raised at the IBR Fundraiser 2014, which featured fusion concerts by acclaimed Indian violinist L. Subramaniam and his wife, and renowned singer Kavita Krishnamurti Subramaniam.

Senior Minister of State for Law and Education and SINDA president Indranee Rajah said: "I am thankful to the members of the IBR for adopting SINDA's e-learning cause and organising this fundraiser. The contributions will enable SINDA to acquire and implement technology-based pedagogy to enhance the educational experience of our students."

The IBR, formed by SINDA in February 2011, consists of respected Indian business leaders and professionals based in Singapore, who contribute their expertise, networks and advice to the local community.

There are currently 89 members from the consulting, banking and finance, investment, manufacturing and communications industries.

The money raised from this event will go towards underwriting the cost of SINDA's subscription to the HeyMath! portal for a period of three years.

HeyMath!, an interactive digital online math-teaching tool that has shown positive results in over 50 countries, is also being used in several Singapore schools. It aims to dispel the fear of mathematics, with bite-sized animated and interactive explanations that provide concept clarification visually.
